

I'm not robot!

Mother Teresa was born Agnes Gonxha Bjaxhiu in Skopje, Macedonia, on August 26, 1910. Her family was of Albanian descent. At the age of twelve, she felt strongly the call of God. She knew she had to be a missionary to spread the love of Christ. At the age of eighteen she left her parental home in Skopje and joined the Sisters of Loreto, an Irish community of nuns with missions in India. After a few months' training in Dublin she was sent to India, where on May 24, 1931, she took her initial vows as a nun. From 1931 to 1948 Mother Teresa taught at St. Mary's High School in Calcutta, but the suffering and poverty she glimpsed outside the convent walls made such a deep impression on her that in 1948 she received permission from her superiors to leave the convent school and devote herself to working among the poorest of the poor in the slums of Calcutta. Although she had no funds, she depended on Divine Providence, and started an open-air school for slum children. Soon she was joined by voluntary helpers, and financial support was also forthcoming. This made it possible for her to extend the scope of her work.

On October 7, 1950, Mother Teresa received permission from the Holy See to start her own order, "The Missionaries of Charity", whose primary task was to love and care for those persons nobody was prepared to look after. In 1965 the Society became an International Religious Family by a decree of Pope Paul VI.

Today the order comprises Active and Contemplative branches of Sisters and Brothers in many countries. In 1963 both the Contemplative branch of the Sisters and the Active branch of the Brothers was founded. In 1979 the Contemplative branch of the Brothers was added, and in 1984 the Priest branch was established.

The Society of Missionaries has spread all over the world, including the former Soviet Union and Eastern European countries. They provide effective help to the poorest of the poor in a number of countries in Asia, Africa, and Latin America, and they undertake relief work in the wake of natural catastrophes such as floods, epidemics, and famine, and for refugees. The order also has houses in North America, Europe and Australia, where they take care of the shut-ins, alcoholics, homeless, and AIDS sufferers.

The Missionaries of Charity throughout the world are aided and assisted by Co-Workers who became an official International Association on March 29, 1969. By the 1990s there were over one million Co-Workers in more than 40 countries. Along with the Co-Workers, the lay Missionaries of Charity try to follow Mother Teresa's spirit and charisma in their families.

Mother Teresa's work has been recognized and acclaimed throughout the world and she has received a number of awards and distinctions, including the Pope John XXIII Peace Prize (1971) and the Nehru Prize for her promotion of international peace and understanding (1972). She also received the Balzan Prize (1979) and the Templeton and Magsaysay awards.

Significance of Bel-leaf in Lord Venkateshwara & Alamelumanga's worship:

It is our vedic tradition to worship Shiva with Tulasi dalam and Lord Venkateswara (Vishnu's form) with Bilva dalam during Kartheeka masa. One should never differentiate between Hari(Vishnu) and Hara(Shiva), hence the exchange of these Holy leaves/dalams.

To overcome financial problems, devotees chant a powerful stotram called "Shree Venkateswara Mahishi Mahalakshmi Stotram" while offering Bel-leaves.

It is also believed that offering prayers to Shree Mahalakshmi with Bel-leaves (particularly on Friday's and also during Shravana Masa), showers the worshipper with abundant wealth and prosperity.

Bilvashtakam in English

The leaves of Bilwa (Aegle marmelos), which has multiple leaves, with each leaf consisting of three leaves is very dear to Lord Shiva. Offering this leaf to Lord Shiva pleases him especially on the Shivarathri. There are several stories how people got salvation by offering one Bilwa leaf to Lord Shiva.

Tridalam trigunakaaram trinethram cha triyayusham,
Trijanma papa samharam Eka bilwam shivarpanam. 1

I offer one leaf of Bilwa to Lord Shiva,
Which has three leaves,
Which causes three qualities,
Which are like the three eyes of Shiva,
Which is like the triad of weapons,
And which destroys sins of three births.

Trishakha bilwathraischa hyachidrai komalai shubai,
Shiva poojam karishyami, Eka bilwam shivarpanam. 2

I offer one leaf of Bilwa to Lord Shiva,
Which has three shoots,
Which do not have holes,
Which are good and pretty,
And worship Lord Shiva.

Aganda bilwa pathrena poojithe nandikeshwara,
Shudhyanthi sarva papebhyo, Eka bilwam shivarpanam. 3

I offer one leaf of Bilwa to Lord Shiva,
For if an uncut leaf is offered,

Moses as the First Interpreter of God's Law – A Response to Joshua

Berman from the perspective of the Old Testament

Benjamin Kilchör

"Is God's Law Eternal?" – Joshua Berman approaches this question with the concept of Common Law. I quote him: "The laws of the great kings of the ancient world were never considered immutable statutory law, and the same was true of God's law. Israel was not free to disregard the law, but that law surely needed to be applied anew and restated."¹

It seems to me, that the best way to give a response from the perspective of the Old Testament, is just to ask the first interpreter of God's law, namely Moses, and to apply Berman's thoughts and observations to the Mosaic interpretation of the law.

The title of my dissertation, whose main issue is the legal hermeneutics of the Pentateuch, is "Torah of Moses and Torah of YHWH".² The Pentateuch very strictly distinguishes between the laws revealed by God to Moses and the teaching of the law to Israel. While the speaker of legal texts in Exodus, Leviticus, and Numbers is always God, in Deuteronomy it is Moses. The hermeneutical key for the Deuteronomical law can be found in Deut 1:5:

"Beyond the Jordan, in the land of Moab, Moses undertook to explain this law, saying..."³ Thus, Deuteronomy is presented as a Mosaic explanation of the law. The simple question, then, is: Does Moses interpret the law in terms of statutory law, in terms of common law, or something else? Let me give some text examples.
